

SURPRISING IMMIGRATION STATISTICS FROM 2019

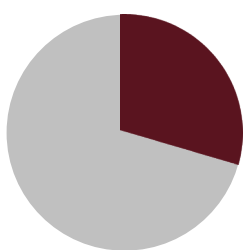

The only 2019 immigration statistics available as of this writing are for the FIRST QUARTER OF THE FISCAL YEAR, WHICH BEGAN IN OCTOBER 2018. The statistics will certainly change over the remainder of the year, as more statistics are analyzed and released by DHS.

As of 2017, the U.S. foreign-born population is about 44.4 MILLION PEOPLE. That equates to about 13.6 PERCENT of the entire U.S. population.

77% of immigrants in the United States are here legally.

27% of all immigrants come from South and East Asia.

LAWFUL PERMANENT RESIDENT STATISTICS FROM 2019

257,000 foreign nationals obtained lawful permanent resident status in the U.S.

More than 140,000 people adjusted status from inside the U.S.

Another 117,000 came to the U.S. as new arrivals, having applied through consular processing.

39% OF THE PEOPLE WHO GAINED LPR STATUS CAME FROM

The People's Republic of China

India

Cuba

The Dominican Republic

The Philippines

Mexico

REFUGEE ARRIVAL STATISTICS FROM 2019

In FY 2019's first quarter, a total of 5,700 refugees were admitted to the United States

- 90% of these refugees:
 - o The Democratic Republic of Congo
 - o Ukraine
 - o Burma
 - o Eritrea
 - o Afghanistan
 - o Burundi

NATURALIZATION STATISTICS FROM 2019

- 175,000 foreign nationals became U.S. citizens
- During fiscal year 2018, only 800,000 people applied for naturalization in the U.S., despite millions being eligible.
- 40% of naturalizations involved people from

Mexico

India

The Philippines

The People's Republic of China

Cuba

Vietnam

Schedule a Free Immigration Consultation